DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

2. Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Malek et al. (US 6,253,207).

Malek et al. discloses an apparatus for transporting multimedia information comprising the following features: multimedia traffic handler 400 in Fig. 4 for controlling and associating each data streams, such as video, voice, etc., with the reserved bandwidth C1, C2.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 9/11/01 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

On page 2, third paragraph, Applicant argues that nowhere in Malek et al. is there disclosed a multi-media call application that effectuate quality of service guaranty for a packet based multi-media call through call associated individual media stream bandwidth control. Examiner respectfully disagrees with these arguments. Malek et al. discloses multimedia traffic handler 400 that effectuate quality of service guaranty (e.g. reduce jitter) for an ATM cell based multi-media call through call associated individual media stream (e.g. voice, video) bandwidth control. See column 1, lines 44-57, column 2, line 63 to column 3, line 12.

On page 3, first paragraph, Applicant argues that Malek et al. does not disclose a bandwidth reservation service that requests a sub-net bandwidth manager to allocate a portion of reserved bandwidth for a packet based multi-media call to an individual media stream of the multi-media call. Examiner respectfully disagrees with these arguments. Malek et al. discloses that multimedia traffic handler 400 allocates a portion of reserved bandwidth, such as C1, C2, C3 in Fig. 6, to an individual media stream (e.g. voice, video) of the multimedia call.

On page 3, third paragraph, Applicant argues that Malek et al. does not disclose a multi-media call application reserving bandwidth for media streams of a packet based multi-media call at a call level with a sub-net bandwidth manager that manages network bandwidth and causing the SBM to allocate the reserved bandwidth for the call to individual media streams of the call. Examiner respectfully disagrees with these arguments. Malek et al. discloses multimedia traffic that handler 400 manages network bandwidth and allocates a portion of reserved bandwidth, such as C1, C2, C3 in Fig. 6, to an individual media stream (e.g. voice, video) of the multimedia call.

On page 3, fourth paragraph, Applicant argues that Malek et al. does not disclose programming instructions implements a multi-media call application that effectuates QoS guaranty for a packet based multimedia call using call associated individual media stream bandwidth control. Examiner respectfully disagrees with these arguments. Malek et al. discloses multimedia traffic handler 400 that effectuate quality of service guaranty (e.g. reduce jitter) for an ATM cell based multi-media call through call associated individual media stream (e.g. voice, video) bandwidth control. See column 1, lines 44-57, and column 2, line 63 to column 3, line 12.

On page 4, first paragraph, Applicant argues that Malek et al. does not disclose programming instructions implementing a bandwidth reservation service that requests a sub-net bandwidth manager SBM to allocate a portion of reserved bandwidth to an individual media stream of the call and providing the SBM with call level information to allow the SBM to associate the individual media stream of the call with the reserve bandwidth. Examiner respectfully disagrees with these arguments. Malek et al. discloses multimedia traffic that handler 400 manages network bandwidth and allocates a portion of reserved bandwidth, such as C1, C2, C3 in Fig. 6, to an individual media stream (e.g. voice, video) of the multimedia call.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

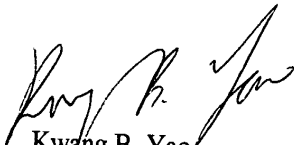

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
